

EMBER RESTAURANT

MILLTOWN, DUBLIN 6

COMPLETED December 2016

Client: Greg O'Mahoney
Architect: John Duffy Architects
Contract Used: RIAI Blue Form

Summary

The project consisted of the complete turn-key fit-out of a contemporary Irish restaurant.

Key Issues

- Significant demolition works, including major new structural opes
- Project completed on-time to an extremely challenging deadline
- Restricted access to site, requiring traffic management plans
- Significant M+E installation, including high spec. commercial kitchen
- Bespoke high-spec finishes throughout, including solid oak herringbone parquet flooring, feature lighting, mosaic tiling, rainforest marble-clad walls, white rock walling to kitchen area and new shopfront with treated timber cladding.
